

Attention FDA

0259 '00 MAY -4 AM 10:47

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

*No. That is taking away my freedom.
We fought to keep.*

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

We should have a choice of where we want to get our hearing aids. Why pay the extra price if it is not needed.

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

No. It should be left up to me and nobody else.

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

*Yes. That is one of my freedoms,
I still have, and hope to keep.*
